The image shows a screenshot of the OKCupid website's 'Matches' section. At the top, there's a search bar with dropdown menus for gender ('Guys who like girls'), age ('Ages 18 to 26'), location ('Within 50 miles of me'), and activity ('Online in the last month'). Below the search bar, there's a 'Special Blend' ordering option. The main area displays a grid of user profiles. Each profile card includes a small photo, the username, age, location, and a 'Match' percentage. The 'Wildboar666' profile is highlighted with an orange box around its entire card. The 'Like' button and 'Hide profile' link are visible at the bottom of this card. The overall layout is clean with a blue header and white background.
